

Portland needs to address affordable housing for moderate income people, but Munjoy Hill is not part of that solution. On March 20, people's opinions seemed to emphasize maintaining the feel of a medium-density neighborhood without adding maximum-size rectangular boxes that fill every foot of space with densely-packed condominiums. No one spoke in support of condominium construction.

One certainly should be supported in having their property rights, but there is serious resistance to anyone's right to pack in units for maximum profit.
