THE COMMUNITY

Located in the scenic Northeast, the City of Portland is the population, financial, and cultural center of the State of Maine. With a population of 67,000 residents (evenings), 150,000 (daytime) Portland is perched on a peninsula that juts out onto an island-studded Casco Bay. Portland is a progressive, lively city incorporating the character of yesteryear into a modern urban environment. Historic architecture blends with new; a working waterfront borders cobblestone streets of the Old Port; and a vibrant arts district is pebbled with five-star gourmet restaurants.

Portland is truly the gem of New England, which is why it was named the #1 place in the country to raise children, the top green city of its size, and one of the ten great adventure towns by National Geographic. Even Frommer’s Travel Guide agrees, naming Portland among the top twelve surprising, thriving and emerging world destinations. More than 2 million people visit the city annually.

Portland’s miles of trails, parks, and beaches are just a few reasons why people come to live and work in the city. The city offers world class events at Merrill Auditorium, an AA league professional baseball team, a minor league hockey team, NBA G-League basketball team, and year round entertainment. Within just a few miles of Portland’s borders are ski resorts, lakes, mountains, and access to virtually any outdoor activity you can imagine.

Portland is home to the University of Southern Maine, the University of New England, the Muskie School of Public Policy and the University of Maine Law School. The Southern Maine Community College System is just a short drive across the Casco Bay Bridge.

Portland is a city of neighborhoods diverse in character and design, offering a broad spectrum of housing choices for residents from dense urban neighborhoods to island communities. While it is the largest city in Maine with a metro population of 230,000, Portland still maintains its small-town feel with a strong sense of community and neighborhood support.

THE CITY OF PORTLAND GOVERNMENT

The City of Portland operates under a Council-Manager form of government with a nine member City Council. Each of the city’s five voting districts elects one Council member, with an elected Mayor and three at-large members elected by the entire city. The Mayor is elected for a four-year term and Councilors are elected for three-year staggered terms. The City Council provides community leadership and develops policies to guide the city by setting strategic goals, passing ordinances, adopting resolutions, and appointing the City Manager, Corporation Counsel and City Clerk.

The City Manager oversees the day-to-day operations of the City. He is the administrative head of the City and is responsible to the City Council for the administration of all departments including the Health & Human Services Department. The City Manager prepares the annual budget and presents it to the City Council for approval. In addition, the City Manager’s office directly oversees the City’s economic development, waterfront policy, island and community outreach and communications operations. Other departments reporting to the City Manager include the Assessor’s Office, Finance, Human Resources, IT, Public Works, Police, Fire, the Portland Jetport, and Permitting & Inspections.

The City of Portland is widely recognized as a well-managed, full-service municipality providing valued services to its residents. In fiscal year 2019, the City Council approved a budget of $248 million with total full-time equivalent of 1386 positions.

THE POSITION

The Director of Health & Human Services’ purpose is to enhance the health and well-being of the residents of Portland in collaboration with our Community, State and Federal partners. The position is primarily responsible for directing, leading and overseeing four divisions of the HHS Department including the Barron Center, Public Health, Social Services and Elder Services.

As the HHS Director, work involves responsibility for planning, organizing, setting objectives, formulating policy, and directing and evaluating the activities of the Department.
