MIAMI BEACH, Oct. 4.—The scandal-ridden International Brotherhood of Teamsters elected James R. Hoffa as its president today.

He won by a margin of nearly 3 to 1 over the combined vote of two rivals who campaigned on pledges to clean up the nation's biggest union.

Senate racketeers investigators and Hoffa critics in the union rank-and-file immediately opened actions to strip the 44-year-old former warehouseman from Detroit of his election victory.

Navy Picks Up Radio Signals—4 Report Sighting Device

By WALTER SULLIVAN

WASHINGTON, Saturday, Oct. 5.—The Naval Research Laboratory announced early today that it had recorded four crossings of the Soviet earth satellite over the United States.

It said that one had passed near Washington. Two crossings were farther to the west. The location of the fourth was not made available immediately.

It added that tracking would be continued in an attempt to pin down the orbit sufficiently to obtain scientific information of the type sought in the International Geophysical Year.

[Four visual sightings, one of which was in conjunction with a radio contact, were reported by early Saturday morning. Two sightings were made at Columbus, Ohio, and one each from Terre Haute, Ind., and Whittier, Calif.]

MOSCOW, Saturday, Oct. 5.—The Soviet Union announced this morning that it successfully launched a man-made earth satellite into space yesterday.

The Russians calculated the satellite's orbit at a maximum of 560 miles above the earth and its speed at 18,000 miles an hour.

The official Soviet news agency Tass said the artificial moon, with a diameter of twenty-two inches and a weight of 184 pounds, was circling the earth once every hour and thirty-five minutes. This means more than fifteen times a day.

Two radio transmitters, Tass said, are sending signals continuously on frequencies of

Why ReCode?

1 Streamline and simplify code

A well-organized new Code will increase predictability and clarity for the development review process.

2 Create consistency across the code

The ReCode process is an opportunity to ensure there's no outdated, unclear or duplicative language in the Code.

3 Introduce graphics to improve legibility

An increased use of tables and illustrative graphics will make the next iteration of the Code a more accessible document for all.

4 Align the code with Portland's Plan

The ReCode will help ensure our regulations align with our aspirations.

Planning Board Direction & Oversight

As part of this process, the Planning Board provides direction and oversight, consistent with their Land Use Code charge, and similar to their guidance of the Comprehensive Plan process:

To hear, review and offer its recommendations to the city council on applications for zoning changes and amendments to, or revisions of, the zoning ordinance, and to initiate recommendations for zoning changes and amendments to, or revisions of, the zoning ordinance.

The screenshot shows the homepage of recodeportland.me. The header includes the logo and navigation links: "What is ReCode Portland?", "Resources", "Public Input", and "Contact Us". The main content area features a large image of a cityscape with the text "Welcome To ReCode Portland's Information Portal." Below this, a headline reads "ReCode Portland is the first rewriting of the City's Land Use Code in over 40 years". A "Subscribe" button is visible, with a small text prompt: "Sign up with your email address to receive news and updates."

The screenshot shows the "Impact Fee Study" page. It features a line graph showing projected population growth from 2010 to 2030. The y-axis represents population, ranging from 0 to 80,000. The x-axis shows years from 2010 to 2030. The graph shows a steady increase in population, reaching approximately 75,000 by 2030. A text box on the right states: "Population Target: 75,000. Portland's Plan supports the principle that all who work in Portland should have the option of living in Portland, and establishes a growth target of 75% of the current daytime population." Below the graph is a "Click to enlarge" link and a small icon of a city skyline labeled "New Development".

The screenshot shows the "Accessory Dwelling Units" page. The header includes the logo and navigation links: "What is ReCode Portland?", "Resources", "Public Input", and "Contact Us". The main content area features a large image of a cityscape with the text "Accessory Dwelling Units". Below this, a headline reads "Accessory Dwelling Units". A text box on the left states: "The City is reviewing existing standards for accessory dwelling units (ADUs) with the goal of establishing a more uniform definition and set of requirements across Portland's various zoning districts. The effort to standardize ADU terms and standards is a vital component of the ReCode process." A text box on the right states: "WHAT IS AN ACCESSORY DWELLING UNIT (ADU)? An ADU is an additional living quarter that is independent of and wholly contained within a principal building or attached/detached accessory structure (such as a garage) on property where a single-family dwelling unit or multi-family dwelling unit is the principal use. ADUs are equipped with kitchen and bathroom facilities and are typically subject to standards related to location of the ADU within a site, interface of entrances and ADU size. An ADU within a single family home is distinguished from a duplex, for example, because the ADU is intended to be clearly subordinate in scale and placement in relation to the primary residence." Below the text is a map of Portland showing areas where ADUs are currently permitted, with a legend indicating "Area Where Accessory Dwelling Units or Equivalent are Currently Permitted".

Process

Community Conversations I

- Planning staff held a series of neighborhood conversations to hear about neighborhood strengths, what works in the current code, what needs improvement, and how it could better meet the vision of Portland's Plan.

Reorganization +

- Reorganization of existing code
- Definitions
- Signs
- ADUs
- Impact Fees

Community Conversations II

- Following restructuring, Planning will hold a second round of community conversations to gather input for substantive changes to the code.

ReCode Phase II

- Evaluation of zones for consistency with Portland's Plan goals, neighborhood feedback.
- Site Plan, Subdivision, Nonconformities, Design

Reorganization

1 Streamline and simplify code

2 Create consistency across the code

cultural exchange, training programs and workshops, neighborhood meetings or gatherings. As part of these functions and activities, it shall be permissible to serve food, subject to other applicable codes and ordinances. In the R-6 residential zone only, the building can also be used for a farmer's market pursuant to chapter 21 of this code and the requirements set forth therein.

Community living arrangements. A state approved, authorized, certified or licensed group home for eight or fewer mentally handicapped or developmentally disabled persons.

Congregare care facility. A residential development which provides individual living or dwelling units with support services which provide assistance to residents. Services to be provided shall include:

- a) Transportation for essential support activities. This service shall be included in the base rent.
- b) Provision of at least one meal per day.
- c) Programmed social activities which are facilitated by staff. This service shall be included in the base rent.
- d) Provision of personal care services, including, but not limited to, housekeeping, laundry, and minimal health monitoring; and
- e) Installation of emergency call buttons or systems in each congregare care living unit.

The population of a congregare care facility shall consist of persons 55 years of age or older and their spouses and/or disabled persons and their spouses.

Customarily. More often than an average of one calendar week during any calendar month of operation.

Day care facility. A facility which provides a regular program of care and protection for children under the age of 16, for consideration, for any part of the day.

Drinking establishment. Means and includes any establishment required to be licensed to sell alcoholic beverages for on-premises consumption, which is not regularly used for the purpose of providing full-course meals, as defined in Title 28-A of the Maine Revised Statutes, on the premises.

Drive-through facility. A commercial facility which provides a service directly to a motor vehicle occupant and where the customer drives a motor vehicle on the premises and to a window or mechanical drive through or by which the customer's service is provided without exiting the vehicle. Drive-through facilities shall not include major or minor maintenance service stations.

Drive-through features. Features associated with drive-through facilities including but not limited to design, signage, travel or stacking lanes, intercom systems, menu boards, service windows, kiosks, mechanical devices, etc.

Dwelling. A building or portion thereof used exclusively for residential occupancy, including single-family, two-family and multi-family dwellings, but not including hotels, lodging houses, sheltered care group homes or tourist homes. Occupancy of dwellings for periods of less than 30 days are subject to the requirements of Portland City Code Chapter 6, Article VI.

Dwelling unit. One or more rooms with private bath and kitchen facilities comprising an independent self-contained dwelling unit.

Dwelling, multi-family. A building or portion thereof containing three or more dwelling units.

Dwelling, single-family. A detached building used exclusively for occupancy by one family.

Dwelling, two-family. A single building containing two dwelling units used exclusively for occupancy by two families living independently of each other.

CITY OF PORTLAND UNIFIED DEVELOPMENT CODE | 3

Intermediate care facility. A facility which provides, on a regular basis, health-related care and services to individuals who do not require the degree of care and treatment which a hospital or extended care facility is designed to provide but who, because of their mental or physical condition, require such care and services above the level of room and board. Said facility must be licensed as a board care, residential care facility or equivalent pursuant to the regulations promulgated by the State of Maine Department of Health and Human Services.

Kitchen facilities. Facilities used for the preparation of meals, including refrigerators and devices used for the cooking or preparation of food.

Light manufacturing. The fully processed assembly or fabrication of materials but excluding the processes such as smelting, refining, casting, forging, brewing, and similar processes involving converting raw materials to a finished or semi-finished product.

Living Unit. An independent self-contained dwelling unit that does not include full kitchen facilities.

Lodging house. A house, building or portion thereof containing two or more rooming units and providing such units, with or without meals, to individuals on not less than a weekly or monthly basis for compensation. A lodging house, except for lodging houses located in the IR-2, IR-3 and I-B zones, shall contain common areas for use by all residents, including a kitchen. A kitchen need not be available as part of the common areas where all meals are provided on a daily basis.

Long term or extended care facility. An institution or a distinct part of an institution that is licensed or approved to provide full-time convalescent or chronic care, or health care under medical supervision for 24 or more consecutive hours, to nine or more individuals who, by reason of advanced age, illness, or infirmity are unable to care for themselves, and who are not related to the governing authority by marriage, blood, or adoption.

Lot. A parcel or portion of land that is designated as an individual lot for development or ownership that is either a) a lot of record, recorded in the Cumberland County Registry of Deeds; or b) a lot created by subdivision of such lots of record by common ownership; or c) a newly established parcel meeting all the dimensional requirements of the zone in which it is located.

Lot area. The area of land enclosed within the boundary lines of a lot.

Lot coverage.

Lot width. The distance parallel to the front of the building measured between side lot lines through that part of the principal building where the lot is narrowest.

Low Impact Industrial uses. Industrial activity involving the manufacturing, packaging, assembly, or distribution of finished products from previously prepared material, including but not limited to the following: bakeries, breweries, bottling, printing and publishing, pharmaceuticals, machine shops, precision instruments, watchmakers, musical instruments, toys and sporting goods, pottery and ceramics using only previously pulverized clay, wood products, jewelry, assembly of electrical components, canteen services, tool and die shops, and the packaging of foods. Low impact industrial uses do not include the processing of raw materials or salvaging operations. Low impact industrial uses are compatible, due to their size and nature of impact, with residential, commercial and other low impact industrial uses because of the level of traffic.

Accessory Dwelling Units

What is an ADU? An additional residence, either within a single or two-family home, within an accessory structure such as a garage, or as a small free-standing cottage.

Why do they matter? ADU's are an important element of Portland's approach to creating a well-rounded housing supply and an organic way to allow neighborhoods to retain their character as they grow. They increase supply and diversity of housing, provide flexibility for property owners, and allow for the adaptation of existing housing and infrastructure.

The Status of Existing Regulations. At present, some form of accessory dwelling unit is permitted within most of Portland's residential zoning districts. Terms, requirements, review standards, and process varies.

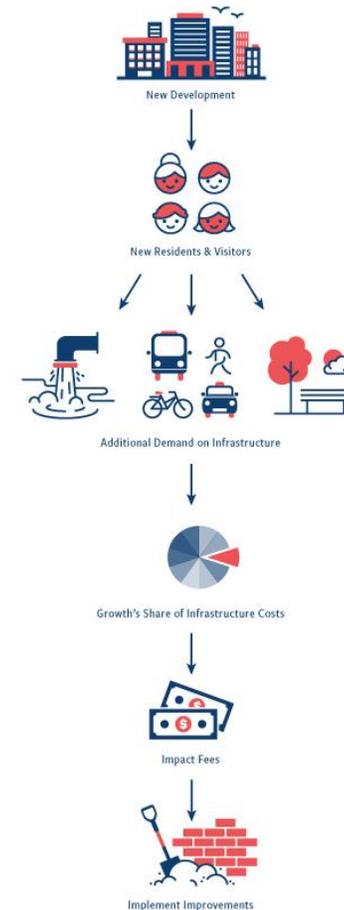

Goal. Create a clear unified approach city-wide that permits and encourages contextual ADUs in Portland's neighborhoods.

Impact Fee Study: Planning for Growth

- Phase 1 ReCode initiative for a more clear, consistent, and predictable code.
- One-time payment for growth-related infrastructure.
- Creates a predictable, streamlined process as a component of the review process for new development.
- Study explores Parks, Transportation, Wastewater fees.

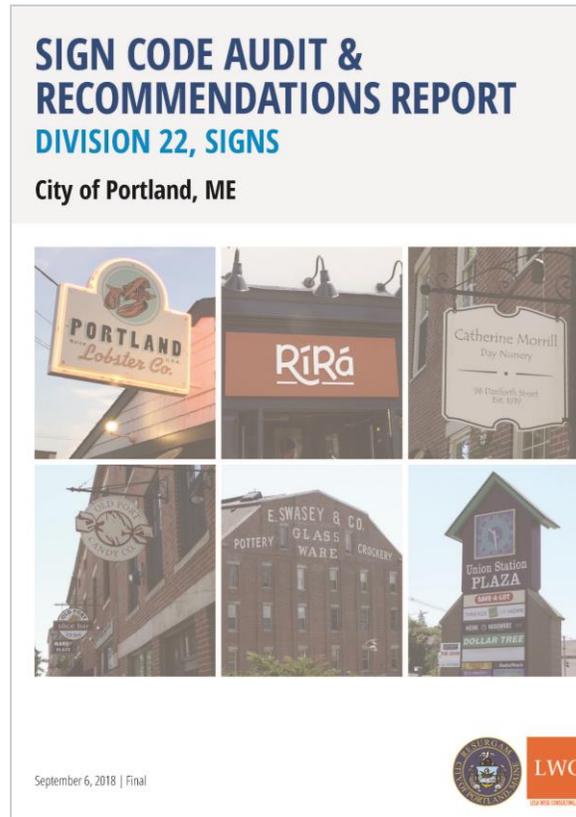

Full workshop item this evening.

Sign Regulations

Sign Code rewrite underway as part of Phase I of Recode. New sign standards will:

- Be reorganized for improved clarity
- Include illustrative graphics
- Be evaluated for consistency with current state and federal case law
- Reflect different aesthetic, dimensional, and materials needs of different property types, geographies and historic districts
- Sign Code Audit & Recommendations: <https://www.recodeportland.me/sign-regulations/>
